

Theory Of Change

Mission

Our mission is to improve the self-esteem of marginalised young people in order to improve their life chances and professional aspirations.

Activities

School Holiday & After School Drama Clubs

Artist Development Programmes

Accredited Facilitator Training

Touring Theatre Productions & Workshops

Outcomes

Support for working parents during half term

Increased access to quality arts provision

Improved confidence in children from marginalised backgrounds

Reduced holiday hunger

Reduce social isolation

Raised aspirations

Children are able to express themselves

Improved community engagement

Children with additional needs feel seen, heard, and supported to thrive

Improved confidence to take up space and be ambitious

Societal Impact

Improved Soft Skills FOR BETTER LIFE CHANCES

- Improved emotional intelligence for children
- Improved self esteem for marginalised communities
- Improved leadership & communication skills for young people

More Active AND Engaged Community Members

- More cohesive communities
- Increased opportunity for engagement in exciting and meaningful projects
- Reduced isolation for children, young creatives, and local residents

Increased Diversity In Leadership POSITIONS ACROSS SECTORS

- Increased access to jobs and training opportunities for marginalised communities
- Improved diversity in extra curricular engagement
- Improved confidence & self esteem to support big ambitions

